

COVENANT PRINCIPLES

COVENANT COMPRISES OF THREE FACETS:

1. It's an agreement that is only broken by death, in a marriage that's the death of one part bit.
2. The nature of covenant is that those who make it die to themselves for the sake of their covenant partner.
3. People who are in covenant give each other the right to influence their decisions.

7 PRINCIPLES:

1. I belong to you, and you belong to me.
2. I love you and I'm willing for you to love me.
3. I will provide for you while I am able, and will not withhold what I can do to bless you.
4. I will defend you against any who speak or act against you and refuse to speak negatively of you myself.
5. I will honour you and will obey those who are over me in the Lord.
6. I will be faithful to you and will not treat my covenant responsibilities lightly.
7. I will forgive you; I will not allow any failure on your part to hinder our relationship. If I fail in my love for you I shall be quick to ask for your forgiveness.

"I am in this relationship for what I can give to it much more than for what I can receive from it"
